FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Mr. TYDINGS presented the following

COMPILATION SHOWING THE APPLICATIONS MADE FROM TIME TO TIME TO THE SENATE BY THE LEGISLATURES OF VARIOUS STATES FOR THE CALLING OF A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION FOR THE PURPOSE OF PROPOSING CERTAIN AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 6 (calendar day, FEBRUARY 1), 1930.—Ordered to be printed

STATES ASK FOR FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

A joint resolution of the Wisconsin Legislature has been received by the United States Senate, asking that a constitutional convention be called to consider proposing to Congress such amendments to the Federal Constitution as may be agreed upon, in accordance with Article V of the Constitution. Wisconsin is the thirty-fifth State whose legislature has requested such a convention to be called, and the Wisconsin resolution cites the mandatory provision of Article V that Congress "on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several States, shall call a convention for proposing amendments."

The 35 States which have filed formal application with Congress constitute more than two-thirds of the States of the Union. They are: Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, and Wisconsin.

The Wisconsin resolution does not cite any particular subject for amendment.

(Article V mandates a convention call if two thirds of the state legislatures apply. In 1910, there were 46 states in the Union. Two thirds of 46 is 30.666 or 31 states. The fact Congress proposed its own amendment on the subject of direct election of senators does not relieve Congress of its obligation to call a convention "on the application" of two thirds of the several state legislatures).
